OPPOSES DUELING

New Mayor of Havana Sets Out to Break National Customs.

Havana, December 20.—General Fructo Andrada, the new Mayor of Havana, has set his face resolutely against the national custom of dueling. Colonel Manuel Aranda, a prominent member of the Veterans Association, visited the Mayor yesterday. He was accompanied by eight comrades, for whom he demanded appointments. The Mayor refused to comply with his demand, and indulged in a sarcastic comment on the veterans' greed for office. Then ensued an acrimonious personal dispute.

Colonel Aranda to-day sent two seconds to the Mayor, who promptly arrested both of them and committed them to jail. The Mayor's action has caused great excitement in the highest social and political circles, and his further action is awaited with intense interest. The Mayor says he is fully determined to enforce the antidualing law, regardless of consequences.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE MAY MEET NEXT AT LYNCHBURG

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., December 20.—As a result of an informal conference of Virginia delegates to the International Conference of Interstate Liquor Traffic, held in Washington this week, the place for the next meeting of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League in February was considered. The delegates discussed Lynchburg, Roanoke and Charlottesville as the place for the meeting, and all excepting two favored the Hill City. This goes as a suggestion to the State executive committee, which will soon consider the matter. Local members will make an effort to secure the convention, which is to meet early in February.

POE URGES PAGE FOR CABINET POST

Strongly Indorses Him for Position of Secretary of Agriculture.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., December 20.—Editor Clarence H. Poe, to-day telegraphed President-elect Woodrow Wilson at Trenton, N. J., urging the appointment of Dr. Walter H. Page as Secretary of Agriculture in the Wilson Cabinet. This action on the part of Mr. Poe is especially significant because he has himself been prominently mentioned for the agricultural secretaryship, and declined to seek the appointment on account of the candidacy of Editor Josephus Daniels for a place in the Cabinet. The telegram that Editor Poe sent to President-elect Wilson follows: "While a score of papers have been generous enough to urge my appointment as Secretary of Agriculture, I do not wish the office myself, but do wish most earnestly that you shall appoint a man of extraordinary vision and ability. There is a nation-wide awakening to the possibilities of rural co-operation and better marketing methods, and you can win the everlasting gratitude of the American farmers by naming a man who will broaden the department and make it not only an agency for increasing crop production, but an agency for remedying country life and solving the pressing problems of rural co-operation, rural credit and more economical distribution."

After thoroughly canvassing all names suggested, I believe if you should delegate Dr. Walter H. Page, formerly of the country life commission, to perform this epoch-making task, the nation would approve. While it may be that Dr. Bailey or President Wilson, if committed to some policy, would do equally well, I most respectfully, but very earnestly, urge the appointment of a man of this type, instead of an ambitious politician or department chief. Any conviction that the appointment of Burleson or Moore would be most deplorable."

The annual meeting of the State Historical Commission was held to-day, and a gratifying showing of things accomplished during the past year made in the report submitted by Secretary R. D. W. Connor. The commission is composed of Colonel J. Bryan Grimes, chairman; R. D. W. Connor, secretary; Dr. D. H. Hill, W. J. Perle, M. C. S. Noble.

Achievements in the past two years by the commission include publication of the Christopher de Graffigny, the Randolph Shotwell, Chief Justice Rufin and Archibald D. Murphy papers; the installation of marble busts of Governors Morehead and Johnson and Senator Ransom in the rotunda of the State house; the publication of a number of building and a manual of North Carolina; acquisition of the Graham, Pettigrew and Aycock papers. The commission has provided a division for mending old State and other historical documents entrusted to the commission.

Editor H. B. Varner, of Southern Good Roads and Davidson Dispatch, Lexington, writes to Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham that there is a campaign in full swing in Davidson County, whereby the yield of corn for 1913 will be fully 100,000 bushels more than ever before in the history of the county. The special corn-growing competitions in progress the past several seasons have developed farming very greatly. One old Confederate veteran grew 114 1-2 bushels on an acre. He was seventy years old. The record for the county is 159 in 1911. In 1912 the record was 138.

THEIR CLAIMS SUSTAINED

Cherokee Freedmen Will Participate in Distribution of Lands and Funds. Washington, December 20.—The right of 5,000 Cherokee freedmen to participate in the distribution of the lands and funds belonging to the Cherokee Indian nation, was sustained to-day by Judge Anderson, of the District of Columbia Supreme Court. The court sustained the government's demurrer to a suit of the Keetowah Society to restrain the Secretary of the Interior from permitting the freedmen to participate in the property. The case was dismissed.

The freedmen claim that their share in the property run by the Keetowah Society is $50,000,000. The Keetowah Society is composed of full-blooded Cherokees in Oklahoma. The freedmen are the descendants of mixed Indian and negro blood. The court in dismissing the suit, said the freedmen were clearly entitled to equal rights with the native Cherokees.

STILL PLODDING ALONG

Suffragettes Now Only Eighty Miles from Albany.

Wappingers Falls, N. Y., December 20.—Albany only eighty miles away. This was the cry of the little band of suffragists who left here late this afternoon, after an eight-mile walk from Fishkill over good roads. The four pedestrians—Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Ida Craft, Mrs. Jessie M. Stubbs and Mr. Lavinia Dock—spent to-night at a local hotel and to-morrow will plod the seven miles to Poughkeepsie, where they will remain over Sunday. When the little party left Fishkill they were accompanied by a score of enthusiastic suffragists, on their arrival here they were met by a large delegation with rousing cheers. Miss Craft addressed a crowd of women at the assembly hall, the society event of the season in this village.

Luncheon Planned. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., December 20.—Members of the local Equal Suffrage League have planned a luncheon to-morrow for the entertainment of the little band of suffragettes on its way to Albany. Saturday night and Sunday they will be the guests of prominent Poughkeepsie suffragists.

WOMEN SUCCESSFUL IN BREAKING PRICES

Chicago, December 20.—Women who started out to-day to break the price of fresh eggs here to 25 cents a dozen, were successful in selling in some households and in causing grocers all over the city to advertise fresh eggs at that price or less. More than 30,000 eggs were sold to-day at the thirty stations established by the women's committee. Incidentally the Chicago Clean Food Club, which has been the egg campaign, made a profit of 25 cents a dozen on the eggs. The eggs will be used in the club's further campaign for clean food and fair prices. It was announced that the women will continue one day more, and to-morrow it is expected many more eggs will be sold than were disposed of to-day, as housewives will be stocking up for the week-end.

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the merriest Christmas presents of the year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making. Way last January a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man.

The history ends just after election, and the 1912 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 250 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 115,252.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people, as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrelle Bureau, for the nation is known that a better supply of "Burrelle, New York" will reach him with no delay.
